

Idaho Orchestra Institute Packing List

Here are the basic supplies needed for IOI. Please put your name on everything!

Instrument

Extra set of strings

Folding music stand

A notebook or journal for writing notes and reflections

Pencils

Yoga Mat

Sleeping bag

Pillow

Daily Change of Clothing: (Average low temperature is high 30s-low 40's, high daily temperature is mid 70's -80's) We will wear our camp shirts for the final performance

Warm Sleepwear/Pajamas, hat or hoodie

Warm clothing for the evening games and around the campfire (sweatshirt and long pants)

Evening jacket

Close-toed shoes good for hiking

Swim suit and water shoes

Towel

Toothbrush/toothpaste and other personal toiletries

Flip flops for the shower

Insect repellent

Sunscreen

Personal prescription medications. We expect that the camper will self-monitor this.

Reusable water bottle—label with name!

Flashlight/Headlamp and extra batteries

Camera

Small recreational items (Frisbee, cards, game you think would be fun with a bunch of people)

A note on the cabins at Sawtooth Camp from their website:

Sleeping cabins have cots and bunk-beds. Cabins are lighted with battery-powered lanterns but otherwise have no other amenities. Restrooms with showers are a short distance away. Guests need a sleeping bag, pillow, towels and toiletries.